

Release date
9 July 2020

Number	Name	Description	Benefit / value
1	Shortlisting guidance improvements	Helping make the shortlisting process easier to understand. Reduce the risk of employers making errors for who they want to shortlist. Added guidance to inform employers they need to email the unsuccessful applicants as part of the process.	The journey is easier for employers to understand. The guidance changes ensure the process is clearly stated so employers are aware of what they need to do.
2	Employer terms and conditions update	Employer terms and conditions are up to date for those using the service for their recruitment.	Employers have up to date policy information.
3	Ability to view closed adverts	Employers can view details of vacancies they have published, after they have closed.	Employers can view closed advert details. They can copy and paste details into new adverts. It can be referred to when making shortlisting and interview decisions.
4	Bug fix	Various bug fixes to improve the user journey: 1) Ability to download CV applications during offline shortlisting 2) Accessibility improvements	1) All CVs are now able to be downloaded which will ensure employers can review and shortlist for their vacancy. 2) Pages meet accessibility standards.

Next release date
16 July 2020