

Release date

1 February 2021

Number	Name	Description	Benefit / Value
1	Approvals	The ability to add approvers to review a job listing and enable them to be able to approve and reject the request. Email notifications are sent to approvers when a job is available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- approve- re-approve, if further information is provided. Email notifications are sent to the job listing creator when an approver rejects a job.	Employers can carry out their approval process in the system, instead of offline.
2	End recruitment	The ability to mark a job as complete when all the applicants are in one of the following statuses: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Offer rejected- Offer withdrawn- Contract accepted- Contract rejected No further action can be taken on the job. Users will be able to re-use the job listing for future recruitment campaigns.	Employers can mark their recruitment as completed, enabling users to know which stage their jobs are at.

3	Continuous improvement	Various improvements to the service, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Help and Support / Contact detail updates to the employer and applicant hubs - The ability to hide the cookie banner when moving to another screen in the service - Confirmation page for the NHS BSA Admin user, when adding a user to an employer account for the first time - Review of service for the way radio buttons are displayed throughout - Removing duplicate entries in the Area of Work list - CSAT survey feedback link added to the interview confirmation page - Validation on the contract rejection reason page - Safeguarding improvements to highlight to the employer if any applicants have declared information on their application. - Criminal conviction improvements, bringing the service in line with legislation changes and NHS Employers guidance. Content updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to additional criteria section of the person specification. 	The system is updated and improved based on user feedback and business need, ensuring users are able to carry out the recruitment process.
---	------------------------	---	---

4	Bug fixes	Various bug fixes within the service: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Removing the Page Not Found screen for a recruiting manager when trying to get back to the dashboard after viewing the employer hub - Error message presented on an optional field - Error message updated for when a date is in the past - Enable 0 hours to be displayed in details of the conditional job offer page viewed by the applicant - Contract type now displayed in the preview of a job advert for employers - Design amendments - Advert and job description boxes to be displayed in the correct format - Cookie alert border colour corrected - Increasing the gap between text and Yes / No options on the page - Amending capitalised letters to lower case where required on the Check you advert page - Incorrect colour of text in the create your advert pages after an error was generated
---	-----------	---	--

Next release date

18 February 2021

Delivered by the NHS Business Services Authority