Number	Name	Description	Benefit/Value
1	Job specific questions	We've added the option to include new additional application questions. These are specific questions for medical, dental, nursing and driving roles. Employers can choose which questions they want to include for each role when creating a job listing. We plan to release more application questions for allied health profession and psychologist roles in the future. Currently answers to these questions will not save for applicants to use for future applications. This is something we are looking to develop.	Applicants are able to provide extra detail for medical, dental, nursing and driving roles.
