Number	Name	Description	Benefit/Value
1	New information added to contracts	We've added the pay scheme and the associated pay band to the contract of employment that gets sent to the applicant.	Applicants can now see which pay scheme and band they'll start on.
2	Adverts with more than one location are now searchable	Published adverts with more than one location (2 to 10 locations) are now searchable on NHS Jobs. The advert will show in search results for all the locations added to it. Adverts with multiple locations will also have an icon to show that the job could be based in more than one location.	The advert will show in search results for all the locations added to the job listing.
3	Employers accepting on applicant's behalf	We've improved the contracts section of NHS Jobs. We've made the emails we send to applicants about their contracts, clearer. An email is now sent to applicants when the employer accepts the contract on their behalf.	The applicant will have a record that the employer has accepted a contract on their behalf.
