

How to issue a contract in NHS Jobs user guide

This guide gives you instructions for how to issue a contract in the NHS Jobs service.

You must have an applicant at the contract recruitment stage to issue a contract.

To issue a contract to an applicant, you can choose one of the following options:

- create or select a contract template in your organisations account
- manually create and send the contract offline outside the NHS Jobs online service

For users of NHS Jobs and Electronic Staff Record (ESR) integration, go to the 'Process flow diagram' page.

To find out which roles can do this, go to the 'Roles and permissions' link in the 'Help and information' section of the employer dashboard.

This page shows confirmation you've sent the contract.

Important: The applicant will be able to view and accept the contract in their NHS Jobs account. They might contact you if they need more information or to ask questions. The NHS Jobs service will let you know when they accept the contract.

To go back to your dashboard, complete the following step:

1. Select the 'Go back to your dashboard' button.

Tip: To find out how to manage contract responses, go to the 'How to manage a contract in NHS Jobs' user guide or video from the 'Issue and manage a contract' section of the 'Help and support for employers' webpage.

For users of NHS Jobs and ESR integration, go to the 'Check the start date in ESR' page.

You've sent the contract online and reached the end of this user guide.

Manually create and send the contract

This page shows confirmation you've manually created and sent the contract offline.

Important: You'll only see this page if you're manually creating and sending the contract outside of the NHS Jobs online service. You'll need to accept or reject on behalf of the applicant when you get their reply.

To go back to your dashboard, complete the following step:

1. Select the 'Go back to your dashboard' button.
