This guide gives you instructions for how to add pre-application and additional questions when creating a job listing in the NHS Jobs service.

To add pre-application and additional questions, you'll need to add:

- any pre-application questions including qualifications, licences, registrations, PLAB 2, IQE/ORE and if you're employed by the Employer advertising the job (optional)
- any additional questions including medical, dental, nursing and driving (optional)

To find out which roles can do this, go to the 'Roles and permissions' link in the 'Help and information' section of the employer dashboard.

Do you want to add further questions about unspent convictions and/or conditional cautions to the job application?

Training and Support Officer DRAFT

Reference no: T1111-22-7958

This self-declaration can only be seen after you invite the applicant to interview.

2  Yes  No

1 Help with this question

For roles covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 you are only entitled to ask about unspent convictions and to carry out a basic DBS check.

Asking applicants to complete a self-declaration has two purposes:

- it helps you to have an open conversation at interview about the circumstances behind any information they may have declared
- it gives the applicant an opportunity to present any other evidence they might like us to consider in support of their application and/or to ask questions, if anything is unclear

Asking for a self-declaration from applicants should be complementary to good recruitment practice. It does not substitute the need to carry out the range of pre-appointment checks that are required by law or are available to employers.
