

NHS Pensions - Lump sum on death benefit nomination - Pension Credit member only (DB2(PC))

Notes

Please read these notes before completing the lump sum on death benefit nomination form.

Important

Please be aware that the form will be rejected and you will need to complete a new form if:

- you have not initialled and dated any amendments you have made
- it has been signed and witnessed on a different date
- any mandatory information is missing

If your Pension Sharing Order (PSO) was implemented prior to 1 April 2000 you cannot use this form, please obtain form DB1 from our website.

If your PSO was implemented from 1 April 2000 to 31 March 2008 you can nominate one person or organisation, or de nominate a spouse.

If your PSO was implemented on or after 1 April 2008 you can nominate one or more individuals, or nominate an organisation.

You cannot de-nominate a spouse.

If you want your spouse or registered civil partner to receive 100% of your lump sum on death benefits you do not need to complete this form, as they will receive it automatically, unless you have previously nominated someone else to receive it.

You may change your lump sum on death benefit nomination by either:

- submitting a new application (DB2(PC)) to nominate someone else
- cancelling an existing one using form NOM 1 to enable your new spouse or registered civil partner to receive 100% of the lump sum on death benefit automatically

A new nomination will replace an existing one automatically.

You can nominate one or more persons depending on when your PSO was implemented (see above), or alternatively one organisation. An organisation must be one of the following:

- a body corporate
- an unincorporated body
- your legal personal representative(s)

An individual nomination will not be valid, if at the time of your death:

- a previous nomination has been revoked
- a nominee has died
- a nominee has been convicted of your murder or manslaughter
- the nominee cannot be traced

In these circumstances, their proportion of the lump sum on death benefit will be paid to your estate.

Please ensure you inform us of any change of address of your nominee(s).

The lump sum on death benefit must be paid within two years of the date upon which the Scheme Administrator was first notified of your death otherwise it will be subject to a HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) tax charge of up to 45%. NHS Pensions has no discretion and must deduct this tax charge from the lump sum.

If you are eligible to nominate more than one individual select either 'equal share' or enter the proportion, as a percentage of the total benefits each individual should receive, where indicated on the form. The total of the proportions must equal 100%.
