

Have you heard about the NHS Bursary?

If you're studying to become a doctor or a dentist, you can apply for funding to support you through university.

You could get a non-means tested grant of £1,000 a year, tuition fee contributions, and additional allowances for childcare and more.

Visit our website for all the details.

Register for your NHS Bursary account and apply online