

NHS Pensions - Application for previous public service membership to qualify in the 1995/2008 NHS Pension Scheme

The public service pensions remedy, also known as McCloud, is designed to put right the decision by the Court of Appeal which found that some changes made to public service pension schemes in 2015 discriminated against younger members based on age. Some members who joined the NHS Pension Scheme for the first time, or returned after a break of more than 5 years, from 1 April 2012 may qualify for membership in the 1995/2008 Scheme and therefore be eligible for the public service pensions remedy if they have previous membership of another public service sector pension scheme. More information about this can be found at www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/public-service-pensions-remedy-mccloud/public-services-pension-remedy-mccloud-remedy

Use this form to notify us, NHS Pensions, of your previous membership of another public service pension scheme so that we can determine whether you are eligible for the public service pensions remedy. You should only complete this form if you have not previously submitted a PPSM1 form and have not transferred in service from the other public service pension scheme.

If you have pensionable service in a previous public service pension scheme, other than the NHS Pension Scheme (England and Wales), you should complete Parts A, B and C of this form.

You then need to send it to your previous public service pension scheme administrator who will complete Parts D and E before returning the form to you. If they are unable to complete parts D and E you must provide supporting evidence to show you have pensionable membership in your previous scheme.

When the form is complete send it to us by email to McCloudPPSM@nhsbsa.nhs.uk or by post to NHS Pensions, PO Box 683, Unit 5, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE5 9EE.

Important Information

You should complete the application to be considered for membership in the 1995/2008 NHS Pension Scheme if after 31 March 2012 you:

- joined the NHS Pension Scheme for the first time or rejoined following a break of 5 years or more, and
- had previous pensionable membership with an eligible public service pension scheme in the five years leading up to your NHS Pension Scheme membership.

You should ignore the rest of this letter unless you were in pensionable membership with one of the following eligible UK public service pension schemes:

- NHS Pension Scheme (Scotland and Northern Ireland only)
- Local Government Pension Scheme
- Teachers' Pension Scheme
- Civil Service Pension Scheme
- Armed Forces Pension Scheme
- Fire and Rescue Workers' Pension Scheme
- Police Forces' Pension Scheme
- Judicial Pension Scheme

If your previous public service membership was with NHS Pensions (England and Wales) and you rejoined following a break of less than 5 years then your eligibility has already been assessed and you do not need to complete this form.

Only complete the form if your previous membership was in one of the eligible UK public service pension schemes listed above and at least one of the following applies:

- you have not had a break of more than 5 years between leaving your previous public service pension scheme and joining the NHS Pension Scheme
- you have not previously submitted a PPSM1 (Previous Public Service Membership) form
- were not receiving a pension from your previous public service pension scheme on the day you joined or rejoined the NHS Pension Scheme
- you did not receive a refund of contributions from your previous public service pension scheme
- you have not transferred out your previous public service pension benefits to a registered pension scheme that is not a public service pension scheme, have transferred out your previous public service pension benefits to another public service pension scheme, not including the NHS Pension Scheme (England and Wales)

Part A

Provide all the information requested.

Part B

Answer each question.

If you have ticked 'Yes' to (e) or (g) in Part B and the date you received your refund or started to receive your pension from your previous public service pension scheme was before you joined or rejoined the NHS Pension Scheme shown in Part A then you do not qualify for the public service pensions remedy with the NHS Pension Scheme (England and Wales) and you have been assigned to the right NHS Pension Scheme. Your previous public service pension scheme may contact you if you qualify for the public service pensions remedy with their scheme. You do not need to send the form to your previous public service pension scheme administrator or NHS Pensions.

If you have ticked 'Yes' to (f) in Part B and the pension scheme or arrangement you have transferred your previous public service pension scheme benefits to is not an eligible public service pension scheme (see list on previous page) then you do not qualify for the public service pensions remedy with the NHS Pension Scheme (England and Wales) and you have been assigned to the right NHS Pension Scheme. Your previous public service pension scheme may contact you if you qualify for the public service pensions remedy with their scheme. You do not need to send the form to your previous public service pension scheme administrator or NHS Pensions.

If you have transferred your previous public service pension scheme benefits into the NHS Pension Scheme (England and Wales) we have already determined whether you qualify for the public service pensions remedy and membership in the 1995/2008 Scheme. You do not need to send the form to your previous public service pension scheme administrator or NHS Pensions.

Send the form, including Parts A, B and C, to your previous public service pension scheme administrator and ask them to verify the information you have provided in Part B by completing Parts D and E. Ask them to return the completed form to you. They should not send this form to NHS Pensions.

Part C

Sign and date the declaration.

Part D

Ensure your previous public service pension scheme administrator has answered questions 1 and 2 in Part D and, where required, provided answers to question 3.

If your previous public service pension scheme administrator ticked 'Yes' to question 1 at Part D then you should send the form to us by email to McCloudPPSM@nhsbsa.nhs.uk or by post to:

NHS Pensions
PO Box 683
Unit 5
Newcastle Upon Tyne
NE5 9EE

If your previous public service pension scheme administrator has ticked 'No' to question 1 then you do not need to do anything more as you are not affected by the change to public service pension schemes. You do not need to send the form to NHS Pensions.

Part E

Ensure that your previous public service pension scheme administrator has signed and dated the declaration.
